SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief In Cardui.

Meetze, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well."

One day, I decided to try some Cardui. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness.

It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy. Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardui. Suppose you try it.

It may be just the medicine you need.

BEAUTIFUL NUPTIALS

Solemnized in Boyle When Miss Metcalf Weds Mr. Rodda.

(Danville Messenger.)

A beautiful wedding was that of Miss Frances Metcalf and Mr. Edmunds Alger Rodda, of Lancaster, Pa., which occurred at the home of the bride Wednesday afternoon.

The palatial country residence, which is one of the handsomest in Boyle county, was most appropriately and artistically decorated for the occasion.

The large hall, sitting rooms and parlor were gracefully decorated with daisies and smilax and tall vases filled with white lilies and sweet peas ornamented the tables and mantels. In the archway was the altar, a perfect beauty of daisies and smilax entwined about, with a daisy wedding bell swinging from the center. Two little ribbon bearers, Messrs. Homer and Thomas Metcalf, daintily frocked in white, stretched wide white ribbons from improvised columns through the long hall and sitting room, through which the bridal party marched.

Misses Josephine Sandridge and Martha Hommel led the way and were followed by the groom and Mr. Charles Metcalf. The matron of honor, Mrs. Metcalf, entered alone; then came the bride on the arm of her father, Mr. Thomas Metcalf. Rev. J. P. Strother, of the Methodist church, said a beautiful and impressive ceremony.

The wedding march was played by Miss Em Smith, violin, and Miss Alice Metcalf, piano. Grella's Band, of Lexington rendered delightful music during the afternoon. The bridesmaids were gowned in pink satin with white lace over-dress and carried bouquets of pink sweet peas.

The matron of honor looked handsome in a white satin with silver trimmings and carried white lilies. The bride was never more attractive.

Her exquisite wedding gown was of white satin elaborately trim-

Rochester, N. Y.—"I have a daughter 13 years old who has always been very healthy until recently when she complained of dizziness and cramps every month, so bad that I would have to keep her home from school and put her to bed to get relief."

"After giving her only two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound she is now enjoying the best of health. I cannot praise your Compound too highly. I want every good mother to read what your medicine has done for my child."—Mrs. RICHARD N. DUNHAM, 311 Exchange St., Rochester, N. Y.

Stoutsville, Ohio—"I suffered from headaches, backache and was very irregular. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and before I had taken the whole of two bottles I found relief. I am only sixteen years old, but I have better health than for two or three years. I cannot express my thanks for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had taken other medicines but did not find relief."—Miss CORA B. FOSNAUGH, Stoutsville, Ohio, R.F.D., No. 1.

Hundreds of such letters from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for their daughters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

med in lace and pearls. Her tulle veil was bordered with real lace and caught on her head in a Juliet cap with pearls; she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Upon the table in the dining room were displayed the wedding presents, which were numerous and costly, consisting mostly of cut glass and silver.

The bride is a charming blonde, bright, attractive and much loved, and has always been a special favorite. The groom is very attractive and a rising young business man. They were showered with many good wishes by their host of friends for a long life of joy and happiness. After a bridal tour through the East, they will make their home in Lancaster, Pennsylvania.
